You touch with your fingers.

You feel with your skin.

You can feel things that are hot or cold.

You can feel things that hurt you.

You can feel things that press on you.

You can feel rough things.

You can feel smooth things.

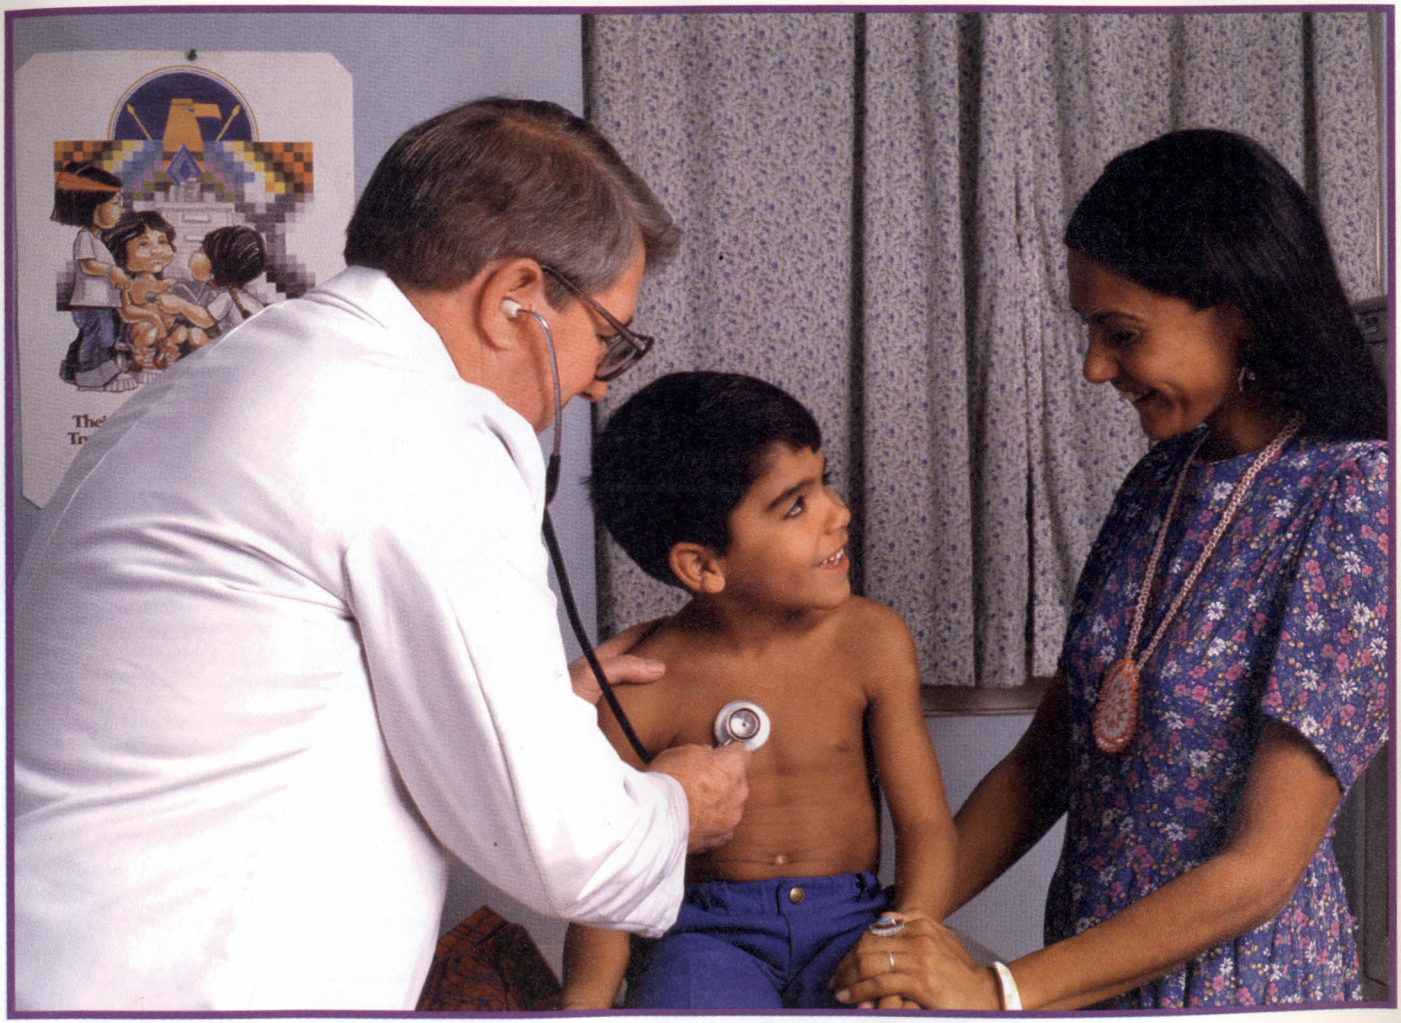
You can feel wet things.

You can feel dry things.

You can feel soft things.

You can feel hard things.

Touch helps people find their way.



Touch helps people hear.

Hooray for touch!
